

HONORS CHEMISTRY LAB SAFETY PROJECT

(Counts as a lab grade)

Choose a lab safety rule from the list given by the teacher and creatively present the lab safety rule in one of the following ways. You may work alone, or you may work with up to three people in a group.

- A. Film a docudrama specifically relating to a lab safety rule along the same theme as a known adventure movie.
- B. Write and illustrate a short story/book in the style of "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty."

GUIDELINES FOR THE SAFETY PROJECT: Points will be deducted from posters that do not meet all of the following guidelines.

1. You may work alone, or you may work with up to three people in a group.
2. You must cover one rule for every person in your group. For example, if you have three people, you must cover three rules.
3. Videos should be 5 – 7 minutes long and should have a definite story line.
4. Books must have a definite story line. They must be at least 10 pages long; however, there is no set number of words that must be on each page.
5. If the project shows the lab rule being broken, it must also show how the rule should be followed correctly.
6. A written script of the video must be turned in on the due date, as well as be shown in class.
7. No more than two groups may sign up for the same safety rule.

GRADING: Projects will be assigned a grade based on the following "Point" system:

- 6 points = A++ (110)
- 5 points = A+ (100)
- 4 points = B (90)
- 3 points = C (80)
- 2 points = D (73)
- 1 point = F (60)

You can earn "Points" in the following ways:

- Rule or paraphrase of rule is clearly stated in the project = up to 1 Point
- Rule is correctly illustrated = up to 1 Point
- Creativity in illustrations = up to 2 Points
- Docudrama is in the style of a known movie = up to 1 Point
- Short story/book is in the style of "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty" = up to 1 Point
- Project has a definite story line = up to 1 Points

Points will be deducted from projects that do not meet the following criteria:

- Project is not the length required = up to 1 Point deducted
- Project does not include the correct number of safety rules = up to 2 Points deducted
- Docudrama does not include a script = 2 Points deducted
